Welcome to Worship!

May 19, 2024

9:30am

May the God of hope
fill you with joy and peace in your faith,
that by the power of the Holy Spirit,
your whole life and outlook
may be radiant with hope.

Romans 15:13

Today is the Feast of Pentecost: a commemoration of the strange event that took place 50 days after Jesus' resurrection when the Apostles experienced a powerful rushing wind, a vision of little flames, and an inspired ability to be heard in foreign languages (Acts 2:1-5). It marked a new chapter of God's work in the world as the Holy Spirit was charging a new generation of believers to lead a new community of holy people: the Christian church.

Some biblical scholars suggest that while some of Jesus' disciples were old enough to marry, others were as young as teenagers. In the Apostle Peter's sermon that Pentecost morning he quoted an Old Testament prophet, "Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions" (2:17). Was he was looking at a crowd of young faces as he said those words?

This Pentecost we celebrate six young people in our church (noted in the graphic) who have completed Confirmation. After three years of in-depth study, prayer, and public declaration of faith, these sons and daughters are not preparing to be the church of tomorrow but are the church of today. They will preach to us in their testimony and lead us in confessions of faith as they are with this church's love and prayer for a lifetime of discipleship.

You Supply My Every Breath

*The mercy of God lasts forever.
The mercy of God lives through all my days.
But what tribute can I pay, there's nothing I say that is worthy to express all my thanks for all your blessings and grace.*

*You supply my every breath
and you lead my soul to rest.
You are there through every test of my life.
And through all that's come before, I have learned to trust you more. By your grace forevermore, I will live to praise you, Lord.*

*Troubles may swarm all around me,
enemies try to take me down.
But with God on my side, I know God provides my protection. And I know that I must put all my trust in the Lord.*

Spirit of the Living God

*Spirit of the living God,
fall afresh on me.
Melt me, mold me,
fill me, use me.
Spirit of the living God,
fall afresh on me.*

Worship Service Information

Please silence your cell phone before the service begins.

Kids: There is a Nursery available for kids ages 3 and under. KidJam is not happening today; the Kidjam room is open for parents to use with their children. Children are always welcome to stay and experience the entire worship service; their presence and voices are precious to us and to the Lord.
